

Class: TYBA

Semester: V

Subject: Political Science

Paper: VII

Paper Title: Concept in Political Sociology

1. The _____ is a body of the whole adult population of the village.

- a. Village Panchayat
- b. Panchayat
- c. Khap panchayat
- d. Gram Sabha

2. _____ undoubtedly is a very important factor of political participation.

- a. Philosophy
- b. Education
- c. Psychology
- d. Society

3. _____ participation does not have any definite objects.

- a. Expressive
- b. Active
- c. Passive
- d. Instrumental

4. _____ is embedded within other social stratifies that mediate different outcomes for men and women.

- a. Elite
- b. Caste
- c. Class
- d. Gender

5. _____ is also said to be factionalizing national politics.

- a. Elite
- b. Class
- c. Caste
- d. Gender

6. Behavioural approach is advocated by _____

- a. Lipset
- b. Watson
- c. Sternberg
- d. Orleans

7. _____ said because of too much use of mathematics, political sociology look more like mathematics than of social science.
- Skinner
 - Watson
 - Gramsci
 - David Easton
8. According to David Easton both demands and support constitute _____
- Support system
 - Output
 - Inputs
 - Cyclical process
9. _____ is considered as the founder of “power approach” to the study of political process.
- David Easton
 - Laswell
 - R.H. Tonny
 - Bernard Russel
10. _____ is a characteristic of authority which provides it a popular base in the minds of people.
- Legitimacy
 - Sovereignty
 - Liberty
 - Individuality
11. According to _____ state came into existence for the sake of life but continue to exist for the sake of good life.
- Machiavelli
 - Aristotle
 - Max weber
 - Locke
12. According to _____, “Social Stratification is a horizontal division on higher and lower social units.”
- Robert Dahl
 - David Eason
 - Raymond Murray
 - Allan Ball