

Question	Answer1	Answer2	Answer3	Answer4
Balance of power successfully operates in Europe from	11th century to 14th century	13th century to 15th century	16th century to 19th century	17th century to 18th century
Balance of power has contributed to perservation of peace in the absence of	Effective international law	Effective international organisation	Effective system of avoiding conflict	Effective system of collective security
The cold war has been a predominant factor in determining the conduct of international affairs in	Post Utrech war	Post Napoleon war	Post Thirty years war	Post 2nd World war
The second phase of cold war started from	1935 to 1940	1949 to 1953	1941 to 1945	1943 to 1946
Armistice treaty was concluded in	July, 1950	July, 1949	July, 1952	July, 1953
The partial fest ban treaty was concluded in	1955	1960	1961	1963
The signing of partial nuclear test ban treaty took place in	1960	1963	1965	1969
The treaty on limitations of strategic arms signed in	1965	1968	1967	1972
Cold war render the UN ineffective because of the	Conflict between America and Russia	Arms Race	Militarisation	Veto Power
The concentration of powers into two eminent actors resulted	Uni polar configuration of power	Multi polar configuration of power	Bi polar configuration of power	Non polarity system
Berlin wall was tore in	1990	1985	1987	1989
"We are now moving in the world where power is more diffused, a multipolar world" said by	Woodrow Wilson	Barack Obama	Donald Trump	Lawrence EagleBurger