

TYBA Sociology Paper 6

1. Gender is something

a. we are born with

b. we have

c. we do

d. we dream

2. Gendered performances are available to

a. few

b. men

c. foreigners

d. everyone

3. Social norms for heterosexual coupling and care of any resulting children are closely intertwined with

a. choice

b. liking

c. dream

d. gender

4. Argued that male-female relationship is the paradigm for all power relationships

a. Kate Millet

b. Mary Wollstonecraft

c. Cixous

d. Irigaray

5. To collapse language into biology is to force men and women once again into patriarchy's straightjacket

a. Bell Hooks

b. Mitchell

c. Kate Millet

d. Julia Kristeva

6. Women are as naturally rational as men

a. Bell Hooks

b. Mitchell

c. Kate Millet

d.Mary Wollstonecraft

7. Dalit women struggle under the twin framework of caste system and a.social system

b.political system

c.gender hierarchy

d.inequality

8. The awareness about one's situation of marginality when expressed in words or action takes the form of outburst

a.rebellion

b.dalit feminism

c.exploitation

d.oppression

9. The need for feminist scholars to pay greater attention to issues of inclusion, privilege and power

a.intersectionality

b.binary

c.heteronormativity

d.equality

10. Dowry encapsulates the materialist consumerist desires of today

a.agree

b.disagree

c.not sure

d.can't say

11. It is linked with sexuality, reproduction, fertility and the social and legal controls of these

a.men's health

b.women's health

c.children's health

d.senior citizens' health

12. In order to further gender equality in India, we need to _____ dowry

a. support

b.generate

c.give and take

d.fight against

