

FYBA SOCIOLOGY I SEMESTER II

1.The ways in which people act with other people and react to how other people are acting

a.social interaction

b.social relationship

c.association

d.friendship

2. For-----, a prerequisite for any society, to be possible, effective social interaction must be possible a.social order

b.social system

c.social gathering

d.social change

3. He stated that people are constantly constructing the social reality of the situations in which they find themselves

a.Harold Garfinkel

b.Goffman

c.Parsons

d.Mead

4.It is a process of interaction or differentiation whereby some people come to rank higher than others

a.conflict

b.competition

c.stratification

d.accommodation

5. When changes in status occur within one generation, it is called ----- mobility

a.intra generational

b.intergenerational

c.generational

d.pre generational

6. He observes, 'Social control is the way in which the entire social order coheres and maintains itself how it operates as a whole, as a changing equilibrium'

a.Max Weber

b.Herbert Spencer

c.MacIver

d.Goffman

7. This perspective focuses on how crime is a natural outgrowth of the capitalist system

a.Functionalist

b.Critical

c.Marxist

d.Interactionist

8. Ritualism involves the ----- of cultural goals but the routinized acceptance of the means for achieving the goals

a.rejection

b.modification

c.addition

d.acceptance

9. This theory states that deviance is a socially constructed process

a. functionalism

b. strain theory

c. labelling theory

d. population theory

10. These are groups that frantically rush toward or attempt to escape from an object or person

a.mobs

b.crowds

c.groups

d.teams

11. These consist of people who are in the same place at the same time but who are not really interacting

a.flash mobs

b.casual crowds

c.collective behaviour

d.huge crowds

12. Widespread concern over a perceived threat to the moral order that turns out to be false or greatly exaggerated

a.mass hysteria

b.moral panic

c.moral fear

d.moral stress